

Burcu ilenger was born in 1992 in Fethiye, Turkey. She completed her bachelor degree at the Middle East Technical University, Foreign Language Education Department. During her education, she actively participated in various projects, such as Eastern Generative Linguistics in Poland and Turkish National Corpus supported by TBİTAK.

Prior to her position at IICEC, she served as Founding Operations Manager at the Dutch Business Association Turkey, located at Palais de Hollande, where she was responsible for the founding and administrative operations. Freelance travel writer & editor to several media outlets was another experience she had. She also worked as translator for more than 3 years at TercmePress Translation Company. Her internships include ıraęan Palace Kempinski İstanbul, Sheraton Ankara, Letoonia Resorts in Fethiye, mainly focused on event management and guest relations areas.