

ING Türkiye Wholesale Banking Executive Vice President

Ayşegül Akay

has joined the IICEC Board of Directors

Aysegul Akay is the Wholesale Banking Executive Vice President and Executive Committee Member at ING Türkiye, which operates with the fundamental aim of becoming Turkey's leading digital institution, and Board VP at ING Leasing (Türkiye).

Mrs. Akay, joining ING Türkiye in 1997, has worked in different fields of banking sector, i.e. credits, risk management, branch and regional management roles, payments & trade finance, project/structured finance, financial institutions and corporate clients.

In addition to her current roles, Mrs. Akay is leading sustainability at ING Türkiye. In the field of sustainability, being one of ING's strategic priorities, Mrs. Akay involves in different works enabling the clients to access sustainable finance solutions, advisory services and financial resources both in Türkiye and international markets, in order to support their ESG journeys and to accelerate their performances.

As a graduate of the Middle East Technical University, Department of Business Administration, Mrs. Akay represents ING Türkiye in Dutch Business Association Türkiye and the Business World and Sustainable Development Association.

